1970 CHILHOWEAN

MARYVILLE COLLEGE

Maryville, Tennessee

Maryville College is not
the threshold of life;
it is life,
a life of
thoughts, emotions,
and questions.

We feel
frustration and futility;
celebration and joy.
Why are we here?
What is our direction?

THIS IS GOD'S COUNTRY

There are few answers;
none black or white.
Truth has many shades;
her gray varies
as does each of us.
Reality is consensus.

Maryville offers education
for an enlightened
confrontation with consensus
and the responsibility of living.

Consensus and responsibility require freedom to explore fully all we meet.
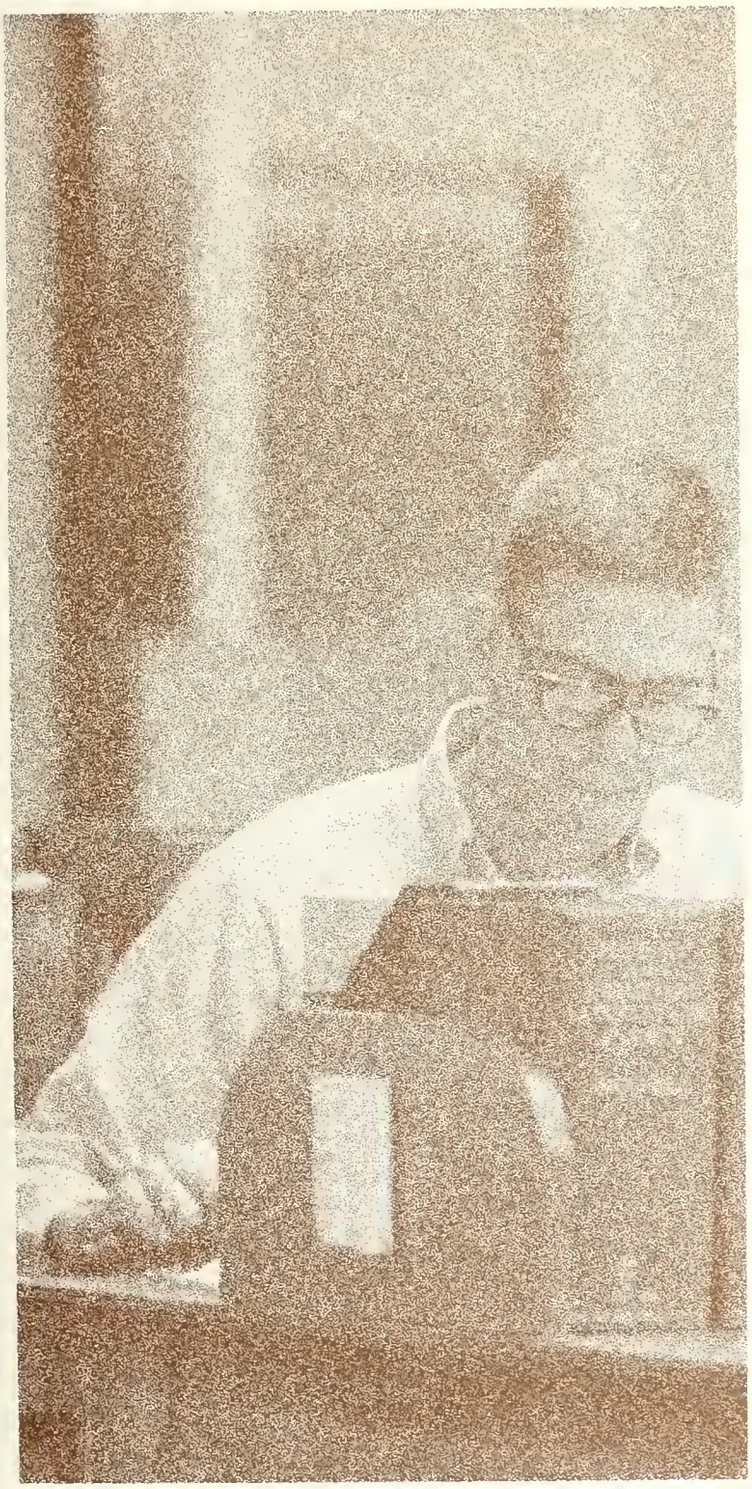
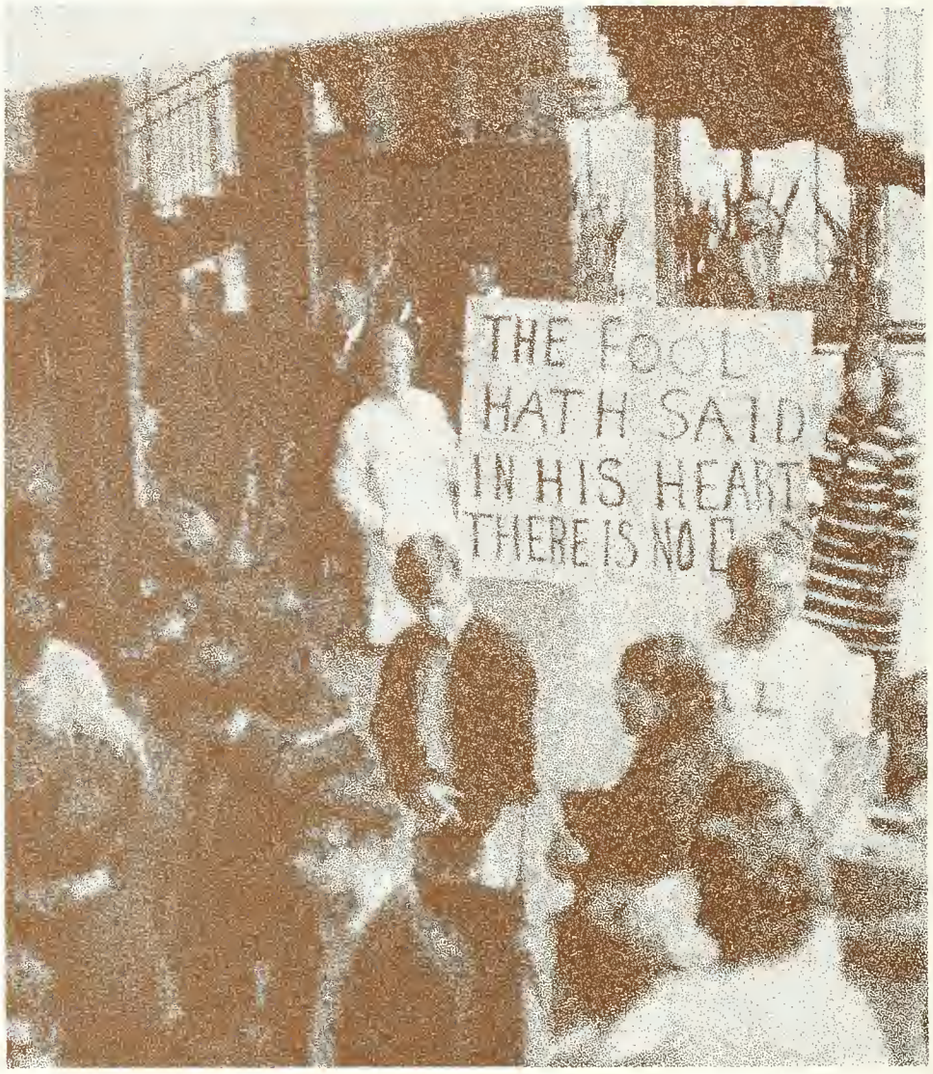
We must have liberty
to adequately educate ourselves
for today
as well as tomorrow.





THE FOOL
HATH SAID
IN HIS HEART
THERE IS NO

Awakening,

befriending,
and guiding
each who seeks
their aid.

Dedication

Dr. Edward Fay Campbell

Fay Campbell likes to tell the story of a Presbyterian minister and a Roman Catholic priest from the same community in Scotland where a Catholic priest is viewed as the Devil incarnate. Every time these two would meet one would remark, "Christ is risen." The reply would come, "Yes, he is." As Dr. Campbell says, "That's all that really matters."

For dedicating his life to all that really matters and sharing his love with us, we dedicate the 1970 CHILHOWEAN to Dr. E. Fay Campbell, Chaplain of Maryville College 1961-1970.

And now
your time
is what you
have made it.

And good or bad
it is over
too soon. . .

And you wish backwards,
turning against today
and tomorrow,
but it doesn't work. . .

So you make do
with what is
and even try
to make it better.
